Plus documentation from the supplier regarding meeting the five freedoms of animals (freedom from hunger and thirst; freedom from discomfort due to improper shelter; freedom from pain, injury, or disease; freedom to express normal species behavior; and freedom from fear and stress) and documentation of in-place policies and programs illustrating ethical farm worker, farming, and land use practices.

A minimum of one of the above must be in place and current for a stamp to be displayed on the supplier landing, profile, and material pages.*

Suppliers earn stamps based on self-reported third-party certifications, verifications, memberships, standards and/or practices. Sustainability Stamps are for sourcing purposes only. Material Exchange is not responsible for the accuracy and/or validity of supplier-disclosed information on our platform.

Accuracy and/or validity of certifications, verifications, memberships, standards and/or practices of suppliers can be checked in a third-party database.
